Profile

Adv. Noga Molad is an associate in FISCHER's Litigation practice. She specializes in a wide range of commercial litigation matters, providing legal counsel and advice to the practice's clients regarding intergenerational wealth transfers for high-net-worth individuals and family businesses, family wealth management, asset protection and preservation, wills, estates and more.

Before joining the firm, she served as a legal intern in the chambers of the Honorable Judge Gilad Neuthal, President of the Tel Aviv District Court.

During her academic studies, she was the deputy editor of the legal journal "Law, Society, and Culture" and worked as a research assistant at Tel Aviv University and Bar-Ilan University.
