

Ronald Lehmann
Partner

T +972.3.694.4145

F +972.3.609.1116

rlehmann@fbclawyers.com

Profile

"Has extensive experience in representing clients in international offerings"
Chambers and Partners

Mr. Lehmann is a partner in FBC's Corporate Department. His practice encompasses a broad range of corporate matters, including private equity and venture capital transactions, public offerings, and mergers and acquisitions, as well as cross-border litigations and arbitrations. His practice has a strong international focus, which regularly sees him involved in a range of public and private transactions with a cross-border element.

Mr. Lehmann also works closely with FBC's litigation practice in commercial disputes, arbitrations and settlement negotiations, involving Israeli and non-Israeli parties.

Prior to joining FBC in 1999, Mr. Lehmann served as Special Counsel in the Tax Department of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson in New York City.

Mr. Lehmann served as a law clerk to the Honorable Patricia M. Wald, US Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit from 1989 until 1990.

Practice Areas

- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Capital Markets
- Hi-Tech, Technology & Venture Capital
- Private Equity
- Private Asset Management
- Class Actions & Derivative Suits
- Family & Inheritance Law
- Hotels & Tourism
- East Asia Desk

Bar Admission

- Israel, 2000
- District of Columbia, 1991
- Connecticut, 1990
- New York, 1989

Education

- Yale University, Connecticut, J.D., 1989
- Oxford University, United Kingdom, M. Litt., 1986
- Yale University, Connecticut, B.A. (Summa Cum Laude), 1984

Ranking

Hi-Tech, Technology & Venture Capital
Mergers & Acquisitions
Class Actions

