Profile

Mr. Sitton is a partner in FBC's Corporate Department. He utilizes his fluency in Hebrew and English, his familiarity with both American and Israeli business cultures and legal systems, and his broad network of global contacts to better advise Israelis doing business abroad and international clients doing business in Israel. He is experienced in structuring, negotiating and driving multiparty/multidisciplinary domestic and cross-border transactions.

Prior to joining FBC, Mr. Sitton was a partner in the New York office of the international firm Dentons, where he led the firm's Israel practice. While practicing in New York, Mr. Sitton's practice focused on representation of investment funds and their portfolio companies in all aspects of business, including M&A, financing and investment, and equity holders' arrangements, as well as general corporate matters. He also represented sole proprietorships, corporations, partnerships, and LLCs in all phases of business organization, corporate and financial transactions, joint ventures, and day-to-day operations.

Mr. Sitton is active in several organizations promoting trade and cooperation between Israel and the United States.
