Profile

Mr. Liss is a partner in FBC's Hi-Tech, Technology and Venture Capital practice. He acts for private and public sellers, buyers and other stakeholders, in a broad range of complex strategic and financial cross-border M&A transactions, including mergers, share and asset purchase agreements, investments, "going private" transactions, joint ventures and other equity transactions.

Mr. Liss specializes in representation of international clients in their investments and M&A transactions in Israel.

In addition, Mr. Liss represents the firm's technology clients in all stages of their development.

Prior to joining FBC, Mr. Liss worked in the Mergers & Acquisition Department of White & Case LLP's New York office during the years 2006-2013. During that period, Mr. Liss worked on a variety of large and complex M&A transactions.
