

Eldad Meller

Senior Associate

T +972.3.606.9640

F +972.3.606.9625

emeller@fbclawyers.com

Profile

Mr. Meller is a senior associate in our firm's Litigation practice as well as our Private Clients, Intergenerational Transfers and Family Capital Management practice.

Mr. Meller specializes in a variety of litigation aspects. Within this context, he represents the practice's clients in complex commercial, civil, contractual and corporate disputes, including class actions and administrative petitions, and regularly appears before the various Israeli courts, including the Supreme Court and the Economic Department of the District Court. Mr. Meller also appears in arbitration and mediation proceedings, and provides in-depth counseling with respect to family, inheritance, trusts and estates disputes.

In addition, Mr. Meller advises the practice's clients on a wide range of aspects related to managing family capital and transference to future generations.

Moreover, Mr. Meller regularly advises business owners and corporations, some of the largest in the Israeli market, regarding various commercial issues, including tenders and regulation, and advises estate managers and receivers to realize assets, including real estate, in family disputes.

Mr. Meller provides a range of unique legal services, including; Management of complex legal disputes in the areas of commercial and civil law; Ongoing advice to business owners and corporations in the Israeli market; Management of inheritance and complex family disputes.

Practice Areas

Litigation
Private Asset Management
Family & Inheritance Law

Bar Admission

Israel, 2010

Education

Hebrew University of Jerusalem, LL.M., 2009