

Garance Seroussi

Associate

T +972.694.1320

F +972.3.694.4103

gseroussi@fbclawyers.com

Profile

Ms. Seroussi represents companies and individuals before various courts and tribunals in connection with allegations of committing international criminal offenses and cross-border white collar crime offenses, including tax fraud, money laundering and cyber offences.

Ms. Seroussi studied law at the Sorbonne in Paris and at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Her international profile enables her to provide in-depth expert opinions in international criminal cases and especially in the ones involving France and Israel.

Ms. Seroussi serves as Deputy Chair of the International Forum - Israel and France of the Israel Bar Association.

Practice Areas

White Collar
Cybersecurity, IT & Data Protection
Hi-Tech, Technology & Venture Capital
Intellectual Property
Mergers & Acquisitions

Bar Admission

Israel, 2018

Education

Pantheon Sorbonne, Paris, LL.B., 2013
Pantheon Sorbonne, Paris, Masters in Private Law (Master 1), 2015
The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, one additional year of studies, 2016