Profile

"vast knowledge in insolvency in Israel and in cases that involve other countries." Legal 500

Mr. Gurman is a senior associate in FBC's Insolvency & Restructuring and Sports Law practices. He specializes in navigating complex legal issues surrounding company dissolutions and recoveries, bankruptcy, receiverships, and corporate reorganizations.

advises individuals, private and public companies, on intricate disputes across insolvency & restructuring, banking, commercial, and civil law matters. He also represents court-appointed officers, companies, shareholders, creditors, and investors in insolvency proceedings, including stays, creditors' arrangements, liquidations, and receiverships.

His multidisciplinary approach, honed through extensive experience representing sports bodies and in legal fields like litigation, insolvency, commercial, and corporate law, allows Aviad to provide clients with comprehensive and successful legal representation.
